Camurus to provide an update on the progress of its research and development programs at the Jefferies 2016 Healthcare Conference

Lund — 11 November 2016 — Camurus AB (Nasdaq Stockholm; CAMX) today announces that Camurus is scheduled to present at the Jefferies 2016 London Healthcare Conference on November 16 at 5:20 pm local time (GMT).

Fredrik Tiberg, President and CEO, Camurus will provide an update on the company's development pipeline, including the ongoing Phase 3 program for the weekly and monthly buprenorphine depots (CAM2038) for treatment of opioid dependence and pain. An update on the strategic priorities will also be provided, including the building of the European commercial organization in preparation for the anticipated launch of CAM2038 for treatment of opioid dependence in 2018.

Camurus has made good progress in accelerating its portfolio in therapeutic areas of addiction, pain, endocrinology and cancer, with a recent addition of three new drug candidates in clinical development. Camurus' clinical stage pipeline comprises 10 programs developed alone or together with international pharmaceutical and biotech partners; including Novartis, Braeburn Pharmaceuticals and Rhythm. Results from a pivotal Phase 3 efficacy study of weekly and monthly buprenorphine depots for treatment of opioid dependence are expected during the fourth quarter 2016. An updated development pipeline table is available at www.camurus.com.

The audio and slide presentation will be webcasted live and can be accessed via Camurus web site www.camurus.com.
