Jon Garay Alonso will leave position as Camurus' CFO

Lund, Sweden — 3 March 2025 — Camurus (NASDAQ STO: CAMX) today announced that Jon Garay Alonso will be leaving the position as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) in the company for personal reasons. Jon will remain at Camurus until mid-August to ensure business continuity and a smooth transition. The recruitment process of a new CFO has been initiated.

"I would like to thank Jon Garay Alonso for his time at Camurus. As the company's CFO, he has been a key member of our executive management, contributing to our continued successful development during the past three years", says Fredrik Tiberg, Camurus' President & CEO. "It has been a pleasure working with Jon and I wish him the best in his future."

"I am grateful for the opportunity to have served as Camurus' CFO, collaborating in the profitable growth journey and developing the company's finance and IT organization. Camurus has a strong financial position, and I am confident about its capability to ensure continued growth and success", says Jon Garay Alonso.
