* PEP refers to a person who currently has or has previously had an important public function in a state or in an international organization (e.g. minister, parliamentary and ambassador).

Important information:

The rights issue is not, directly or indirectly, directed at shareholders or other investors domiciled in Canada, Australia, Japan, South Africa, Hong Kong, Singapore, New Zealand or, with certain exceptions, the United States, or in any other country whose participation would require additional prospectuses, registration or measures other than those pursuant to Swedish law. The prospectus, application form or other documents associated with the rights issue may not be distributed in or to any country where such distribution or the rights issue would require such actions set forth in the preceding sentence or be in violation of the regulations of such country. Should such distribution occur, subscription forms sent from such jurisdiction may be disregarded.

No subscription rights, paid subscription shares or new shares in Camurus have been or will be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or the securities legislation of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may not be offered, subscribed for, exercised, pledged, sold, resold, granted, delivered or otherwise transferred, directly or indirectly, in or into the United States except pursuant to an applicable exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and in compliance with any applicable securities legislation in any state or other jurisdiction of the United States. The offer is being made in the United States to persons who are reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers (QIBs) as defined in Rule 144A ("Rule 144A") under the Securities Act in reliance on Rule 144A and to certain institutional accredited investors in reliance on a private placement exemption under the Securities Act, and outside the United States in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. A public offering will not be made in the United States.

In any EEA Member State other than Sweden that has implemented the Prospectus Directive, this application form is only addressed to and is only directed at qualified investors in that Member State within the meaning of the Prospectus Directive, i.e., only to investors who can receive the application form without an approved prospectus in such EEA Member State.

Subscription of shares and other acquisitions of securities in violation of the restrictions described above may be void.

Carnegie handles administrative information in the offer. Carnegie's receipt and handling of acceptance forms does not lead to a customer relationship between the participant in the offer and Carnegie. This means among other things that neither a so called customer categorisation nor a so called suitability assessment will be made regarding the offer, Carnegie cannot therefore assess whether the acquirer belongs to the target group for the financial instrument.

*Requirement of LEI-code for juridical persons

Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) is a global identification code for juridical persons. From 3rd of January 2018 legal persons need to have a LEI-code to be able to make a security transaction. If there is no such code Carnegie is not allowed to execute the transaction for the legal person. Subscriber that needs to acquire a LEI-code to sign shares in the company should contact any of the suppliers available on the market. Keep in mind to apply for a registration of a LEI-code in time since the code needs to be submitted on the acceptance form. More information regarding the requirements of the LEI can be found on the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority's website www.fi.se.

Requirements of NID-number for natural persons

National ID or National Client Identifier (NID-number) is a global identification code for individuals. From 3rd of January 2018 all natural persons have a NID-number and it needs to be specified to be allowed to make a security transaction. If such a number is not specified Carnegie might be prevented from executing the transaction for the physical person. If you only have a Swedish membership your NID-number will consist of "SE" followed by your personal number. If you have more or another than a Swedish citizenship your NID-number may consist of another type of number. For more information about how NID-numbers are acquired please contact your bank office. Keep in mind to find your NID-number in time since the number has to be submitted on the acceptance form.

Personal data that is submitted to Carnegie, for example contact information and personal identification number, or which is otherwise registered in connection with the preparation or administration of the offer, is processed by Carnegie, as controller of the personal data, for the administration and execution of the offer. Processing of personal data also takes place to enable Carnegie to comply with its statutory duties.

Personal data may for a defined purpose, in observance of bank secrecy rules, occasionally be disclosed to other companies within the Carnegie Group or to undertakings which co-operate with Carnegie, within and outside the EU/EEA in accordance with EU's approved and appropriate protective measures. In certain cases Carnegie is also under a statutory duty to provide information, e.g. to the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority and Swedish Tax Agency.

Similarly to the Securities Market Act, the Banking and Financing Business Act contains confidentiality provisions according to which all of Carnegie's employees are bound by a duty of confidentiality with regard to clients of Carnegie and other parties to whom services are provided. The duty of confidentiality also applies between and within the various companies in the Carnegie Group.

Information regarding what personal data is processed by Carnegie, deletion of personal data, limitation on the processing of personal data, data portability or the rectification of personal data can be requested from Carnegie's Data Protection Officer. It is also possible to contact the data protection officer to obtain further information about how Carnegie processes personal data. If the investor wishes to make a complaint regarding Carnegie's processing of personal data, the investor is entitled to turn to the Swedish Data Protection Authority in its capacity as supervisory authority. Personal data shall be deleted if it is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was originally collected or otherwise processed, provided that Carnegie has no legal obligation to preserve the personal data. The normal storage time for personal data is 10 years.
